

EUROPEAN PLANNING STUDIES

VOLUME 18 NUMBER 4 APRIL 2010

Special Issue: Diversity and Creativity as a Research and Policy Challenge

Guest Editors: Tüzün Baycan-Levent and Peter Nijkamp

INTRODUCTION

Tüzün Baycan-Levent and Peter Nijkamp. Diversity and Creativity as a Research and Policy Challenge 501

Jan Wedemeier. The Impact of the Creative Sector on Growth in German Regions 505

Ayda Eraydin, Tuna Tasan-Kok and Jan Vranken. Diversity Matters: Immigrant Entrepreneurship and Contribution of Different Forms of Social Integration in Economic Performance of Cities 521

Aliye Ahu Gülümser, Tüzün Baycan-Levent and Peter Nijkamp. Measuring Regional Creative Capacity: A Literature Review for Rural-Specific Approaches 545

Tüzün Baycan-Levent. Diversity and Creativity as Seedbeds for Urban and Regional Dynamics 565

Peter Nijkamp, Frank Zvetsloot and Sander van der Wal. Innovation and Growth Potentials of European Regions: A Meta-Multicriteria Analysis 595

Roger R. Stough. Leadership and Creativity in Regional Economic Development 613

EUROPEAN BRIEFING

Juan Gómez García, María del Rocío Moreno Enguix and Juan Gómez Gallego. Efficiency on the Implementation of Structural Funds by European Regions: An Analysis of the Objective 1 Regions over the Period 2000–2006 629

RESEARCH BRIEFING

Yelda Aydın Turk and Şinasi Aydemir. Transformation in Retailing Behaviour, Patterns and Spatial Settings: The Case of the City of Trabzon 653

BOOK REVIEW 665