

Contents

Editorial ..... p2

In this issue.....

RSA Chair and Chief Executive's Report

Comment and Debate ..... p4

In Depth ..... p6

The impact of new sustainable technologies in the rural areas in the UK: performance, policy and governance

Regional Survey ..... p10

Regionalisation, marginalisation and the role of governance in European and North American metropolitan areas

From peripherality and marginality in Northern Europe to their reproduction within city regions.
New forms in network-based regionalisation Peripheries, cores and challenges for regional governance

'Metropolitisation' in economic development – exclusion and marginalisation through the dominance of national policies: an English perspective

Regional development and peripheralisation through governance

Gdańsk Metropolitan Region: Tackling peripherality and the politics of scale

Adapting British Columbia's approach to regional government: Strategies for peripheral regions

Overcoming marginalisation and exclusion as a democratic project: experiences from the Detroit region

Research Notes ..... p27

Argentina: Regional development and evolution of disparities

Rosario Argentina: A city looking to the future ZICOSUR, the sub-region of the future

Association News ..... p33

The Editors of Regions

Reports on the RSA International Conference in Pécs, Hungary

Phil McCann appointed as special adviser to Europe

New Members