

PLANNING THEORY & PRACTICE

VOLUME 10 NUMBER 1 MARCH 2009

EDITORIAL

- Heather Campbell* Quality and Scholarship in Planning Research:
Is There a Danger We Might Just Publish and Perish? 3

ARTICLES

- Notes on Contributors 9
- Jill L. Grant* Theory and Practice in Planning the Suburbs: Challenges to Implementing New Urbanism, Smart Growth, and Sustainability Principles 11
- Vítor Oliveira and Paulo Pinho* Evaluating Plans, Processes and Results 35
- Tanja Winkler* For the Equitable City Yet to Come 65
- Amin Y. Kamete* Hanging out with "Trouble-Causers": Planning and Governance in Urban Zimbabwe 85
- Sandra Lee Pinel* Collaborating to Compete—The Governance Implications of Stakeholder Agendas at Mount Pulag National Park, the Philippines 105

INTERFACE

- Notes on Contributors 132
- Robert Upton* Patsy Healey: In Theory and in Practice 133
- John Forester* How Lucky We Are: A Glimpse at Patsy Healey's Contributions 134
- Maarten Hajer* From Oxford onwards 136
- Margo Huxley* Theoretical Debates, Planning Practice and Spatial Processes 139
- Louis Albrechts* From Strategic Spatial Plans to Spatial Strategies 142
- Janet O'Neill* Some Presidential Reflections on Patsy Healey 146
- Heather Campbell* Learning about Scholarship ... on a Red London Omnibus 147

BOOK REVIEWS

- Nicholas Papayanis. Planning Paris before Haussmann, reviewed by Christopher Drew Armstrong 153
- Richard H. Schneider and Ted Kitchen. Crime Prevention and the Built Environment, reviewed by Caroline Davey and Andrew Wootton 156