

1355

VOLUME CCXXVII

WWW.ARPLUS.COM

VIEW

- 012 Zaha Hadid's MAXXI museum in Rome opens – the art comes later
- 017 Plans to extend the Stockholm Library finally flounder
- 018 Kenyan environmentalist Wangari Maathai on the Copenhagen summit
- 021 Juhani Pallasmaa's V&A symposium calls for 'resistance to trivialisation'
- 022 Joseph Rykwert takes a sideways look at MoMA's Bauhaus exhibition
- 024 All hail suburbia: how TV affects our opinion of life on the city edge
- 027 The effect of foreign construction companies moving in on Africa
- 031 Switzerland's minaret ban reveals a historic fear of 'the other'
- 033 Kisses under the mistletoe spark an electrifying display in Milan

BUILDINGS

035 Map

107

036

Caruso St John Architects
Nottingham Contemporary,
Nottingham, UK

108

044

RCR Aranda Pigem
Vilalta Arquitectes
Bell-Lloc Winery, Palamós, Spain

109

052

Stéphane Beel Architecten
M museum, Leuven, Belgium

110

060

JLCG Arquitectos
St António Church,
Portalegre, Portugal

111

066

Luis Martínez Santa-María
Social housing units, Toledo, Spain

- 072 Serie turns 19th-century colonial buildings in Mumbai into a series of atmospheric bars and dining rooms

078 Mokuzai Kaikan office

The headquarters of Japan's Association of Wood Wholesalers in Tokyo provides a large-scale example of timber and its technologies in use
Cover Harunori Noda

- 084 Pyramiden, an abandoned Soviet mining town in the Arctic, is preparing for a comeback as a tourist destination

- 090 The failure that was São Paulo's biennale; Sri Lankan architecture explored; FAT brings its radical imagery to a Swiss gallery; Niki de Saint Phalle in Rome; cinematic animation mania

098 Back page

Rut Bles Luxemburg's finds echoes of Jean Cocteau on the Piccadilly Line