

1356

VOLUME CCXXVII

WWW.ARPLUS.COM

VIEW

- 014 Stringent building standards are beyond Haiti's resources
- 019 Jeremy Melvin on the world's tallest building, the Burj Khalifa
- 023 A cancer centre rises from the ashes of a poisoned Toulouse site
- 026 Japanese-style house design comes, incongruously, to Sweden
- 029 Shenzhen's architecture biennale urges the people to go out and play
- 033 A complex to inspire hope and unity is unveiled in the Nigerian capital
- 035 A winning entry for Europan 10 proposes the regeneration of a remote Norwegian town

BUILDINGS

039 Map

040 112

Peter Rich Architects

Mapungubwe Interpretation
Centre, Mapungubwe National Park, South Africa

048 113

O'Donnell + Tuomey

Cultúrlann Uí Chanáin Irish Language
Arts and Cultural Centre, Derry,
Northern Ireland

054 114

Nieto Sobejano

Museo Nacional Colegio de
San Gregorio, Valladolid, Spain

062 115

Sou Fujimoto Architects

House H, Tokyo, Japan
Cover Iwan Baan

068 116

Francisco Izquierdo & Maria

Jose Varas
San Lucas School, Santiago, Chile

074 117

Itami Jun Architects

Church of Sky, Jeju Island,
South Korea

SKILL

078 Osnaburgh Street Pavilion

Carmody Groarke defies the sceptics to engineer an unwavering steel pavilion in central London

EXPLORING EYE

084 The AR returns to West Africa to explore the vernacular architecture of different climatic regions

MARGINALIA

090 Elizabethan architecture;
Snøhetta's first 20 years; Gothic Revival meets photography at the V&A; Martin Elsaesser's
'Vegetable Church' is overhauled in Frankfurt; Maze Prison

098 Back page

A space-age revival of Man Ray's evocative experiments with dust