

PLANNING THEORY & PRACTICE

VOLUME 10 NUMBER 3 SEPTEMBER 2009

EDITORIAL

Luca Bertolini The dream of planning 309

ARTICLES

Notes on Contributors 316

Dominic Stead and Evert Meijers Spatial Planning and Policy Integration: Concepts, Facilitators and Inhibitors 317

Alex Lord The Community Infrastructure Levy: An Information Economics Approach to Understanding Infrastructure Provision under England's Reformed Spatial Planning System 333

Eveliina Asikainen and Ari Jokinen Future Natures in the Making: Implementing Biodiversity in Suburban Land-Use Planning 351

Lucie Laurian Trust in Planning: Theoretical and Practical Considerations for Participatory and Deliberative Planning 369

INTERFACE

Notes on Contributors 394

Libby Porter Planning Displacement: The Real Legacy of Major Sporting Events 395

Margaret Jaconelli in conversation with Libby Porter "Just a person in a wee flat": Being Displaced by the Commonwealth Games in Glasgow's East End 399

Julian Cheyne Olympian Masterplanning in London 404

David Eby Closing Ceremonies: How Law, Policy and the Winter Olympics are Displacing an Inconveniently Located Low-Income Community in Vancouver 408

Hendrik Wagenaar Commentary: Recovering Public Ethos: Critical Analysis for Policy and Planning 414

BOOK REVIEWS

Edward Ramsamy. The World Bank and Urban Development: From Projects to Policy, reviewed by Roberto Rocha Pires 421

Neil Powe. Market Towns: Roles, Challenges and Prospects, reviewed by Michael Murray 422

Iain Docherty and Jon Shaw. Traffic Jam: 10 Years of "Sustainable" Transport in the UK, reviewed by Tim Ryley 424